SACRED HEART PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We accept our baptismal call: to provide a warm and welcoming place for all to freely worship, to minister to all, especially the ill and the needy, to offer a program of faith formation for all ages of our ethnically diverse parish community and to witness the Gospel by the way we live our daily lives.

Gerry Murphy – One of the most difficult moment in life comes when we are called to say “Good bye”. It is even more difficult when we are called to say “Good bye” to a friend like Gerry Murphy who is leaving this week with his wife Georgia to begin a new home in North Carolina, so they can be close to care for Georgia’s mother. Gerry’s life has always been a life of caring. He has provided a wonderful dinner for me each weekend, cooked by the prime chef that he is. He spent much time to make our Parish Celebration last year and evening to be remembered. Gerry believes in community. I will miss his presence each weekend. Even with the current pandemic, he volunteered to sanitize the Church before and after the 11:30 Mass. May God go with him and Georgia as they begin a new life in the South and in his caring for his mother-in-law. God’s blessing always.

Father Greg and all the parishioners of Sacred Heart

My dear friends,

A brief meditation during a past weekend was the following from Joel Osteen pamphlet 30 thoughts For Victorious Living. It was thought 18.

I will set no evil before my eyes (Psalm 101:3)

Do you know that what you think determines the direction and quality of your life? The Bible encourages us to think on things that are pure, wholesome and of a good report (Phil4:8) In order to think on the right things, it is important that you filter what you watch, read and listen to. Don’t let the enemy slowly deceive you into lowering your standards and desensitizing you to what is good and pure. Don’t let him have a single opportunity to pull you down by watching or being involved in things that are questionable.

Remember you are the temple of the Holy Spirit. Fill your thoughts with promises of God found in His Word--- promises of peace, joy and freedom, promises of safety, deliverance and provision; promises of a future and a hope that are only found through Jesus Christ! As you fill your thoughts with God’s Word, victory will come alive in every area of your life.

Prayer for Today:

Heavenly Father, today I ask You to fill my thoughts with Your thoughts and fill my heart with Your promises. I choose to focus on You and the good things You have in store for me. I will meditate on Your Word. Thank You for guiding my every action, my every thought and my every step.

I thought it was good for all of us to hear.

Sincerely,

Father Greg

Church Cleaning: We are deeply grateful for all who clean the Church each week. You do exceptional work and have been over the years. At this time, we are in need of two volunteers to help clean once a month. Please call Jim Muller who has volunteered to make sure there are enough volunteers so that the time for cleaning would be no more than once a month. Please call Jim at 845-532-5320.

Become a Child’s Hero: If you are able to give a child in need a little extra love, attention, and care then you could become a child’s hero. Please call Delaware County Department of Social Services Home Finding Unit to find out how. (607)-832-5353 or (607) 832-5317.
