SACRED HEART PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

The people of Sacred Heart Parish are members of The Body of Christ. We accept our baptismal call: to provide a warm and welcoming place for all to freely worship, to minister to all, especially the ill and the needy, to offer a program of faith formation for all ages of our ethnically diverse parish community and to witness the Gospel by the way we live our daily lives.

Easter Flowers –Trumpets of lilies announces the Risen Christ on Easter Sunday. Please reserve yours for our sanctuary in memory of your beloved alive or deceased. Our sanctuary will be decorated this year to the full extent of what you give for the glory of the Risen Lord. Envelopes are at the entrance of the church. Donations will be acknowledged by names in the bulletin on Easter. Thank you.

We welcome Philip and Cathleen Santoiemma into our Parish Faith Community of Sacred Heart, St Anne's.

My Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Today and during this week, we reflect on the most ultimate highs and lows of humanity—for we are the voices shouting “Hosanna!” welcoming Jesus in. When we welcome the stranger in our midst, feed the hungry, or care for those in need, we shout “Hosanna!” with our lives, welcoming Christ as a beloved King. When have you shouted “Hosanna!” with your life? How are you a sign of hope for those around you? Who has done this for you? The palms we receive are signs of life and hope in the goodness of humanity; times when we welcome Christ into our lives in many forms; moments of solidarity.

We are also the voices of shouting, “Crucify him.” The penitential season of Lent comes to an end this week. When we don't feed the hungry, welcome a stranger, care for the ill, we fall flat and condemn Christ in our midst. When have you shouted, “Crucify him,” and fallen short in living as a disciple of Christ? How have you asked for or offered forgiveness from others? Sins mark the journey of salvation history, as we will hear at the Easter Vigil, and sin remains, wounding our community today. These times are as dark as the ashes rubbed onto our foreheads in the shape of a cross at the start of the Lenten season: burnt offerings from palms of the past.

During this week let us walk with Him to Jerusalem, the upper room of His last Supper, His taking prisoner, His trials, beatings, crowning with thorns, carrying His Cross, his crucifixion, so that we may rejoice fully in His Resurrection and ours.

We are called to reconciliation with Christ and one another. Early on Sunday morning we celebrate Jesus rising from the dead, overcoming the world, errant flesh, and the devil. All is not lost, rather all is saved for those who believe in Christ Jesus.

Please come for Holy Thursday to celebrate the Lord's supper at 6:00pm, His Passion on Friday at 6:00, the Easter Vigil, Saturday at 7:00pm and Easter Sunday of the Resurrection at 9:00 and 11:30 in the morning.

Jesus will be here waiting for you.

In His Holy Name
Father Greg
