A Starting Place for Catholic Families

The Church teaches that family is much more than just a unit in the culture or the economy; it is “a community of love and solidarity, which is uniquely suited to teach and transmit cultural, ethical, social, spiritual and religious values” (Charter of the Rights of Family). Recognizing that each person is a gift from God, parents should love and respect their children and teach their children to love in return.

As primary educators, parents are also children’s first instructors in the faith. By word, example and common prayer, parents can show children the love of Christ and teach them about the deposit of faith.

Religious Education, after a break of two weeks, started again last week. Parents don’t forget to check with your child’s teacher if you miss a class and try to help your child stay up to speed. The catechists are doing a great job, working hard to help you educate your children in the faith.

NEW YEAR’S PRAYER

Lord, You who live outside of time and reside in the imperishable moment, we ask Your blessing upon Your gift of time. Bless our calendars, those ordained lists of days, weeks, and months, of holidays, holy days, fasts, and feasts. May they remind us of birthdays and other gift-days, as they teach us the secret that all life is meant for celebrations and contemplation. Bless, Lord, this New Year, each of its 365 days and nights. Bless us with happy seasons and a long life. Grant to us, Lord, the New Year’s gift of a year of love. Amen.
