GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY (VOCATION SUNDAY)

The Fourth Sunday of Easter we traditionally celebrate as Good Shepherd or Vocations Sunday. This is because in the Gospel of the day (from St. John's Gospel), Jesus speaks of himself as the Shepherd who is prepared to lay down His life for His sheep.

Today we celebrate the 61st World Day of Prayer for Vocations which was first instituted by Pope Paul VI in 1964. This year the theme is "Called to sow seeds of hope and to build peace". The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2).

In his Message for the World Day of Vocations, Pope Francis describes each calling as a vocational "symphony", with every vocation united yet distinct, in harmony and joined together in "going forth" to radiate throughout the world the new life of the kingdom of God." He describes how Christ is able to see our true calling through the lens of love, emphasizing that each human person is chosen by God, "created by love, for love, and with love, and made for love."

How can I support Vocations?

In many dioceses, Good Shepherd Sunday is an opportunity to pray for vocations, to encourage those who might be considering ordained or religious life, and for each of us to ask ourselves whether the Lord might be calling us to do some definite service for Him. On this day, we ask parishioners to:

PRAY for those who have answered the Lord's call, as well as those seeking to be ordained or consecrated, and for an increase in future vocations.

ENCOURAGE those who might have a calling to ordained or consecrated life to explore the idea and find out more.

DONATE towards the ecclesiastical formation and training of our diocesan seminarians.

God our Loving Father,
You called me by name through the sacrament of Baptism to holiness.

Through the gift of the Holy Spirit,
You made me the temple of the Holy Spirit.

Lord,
are You calling me to be a priest,
religious, consecrated, married or single?

Grant me the grace to respond to the calling
'Go out to the whole world and proclaim the Good News to all the nations.'

Guide me in every step I take in life and lead me in every decision I make in responding to Your call.
Make me and mold me into the living image of Christ Your Son,
who was ever close to those in need.

I make this prayer through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
