We accept our baptismal call: to provide a warm and welcoming place for all to freely worship, to minister to all, especially the ill and the needy, to offer a program of faith formation for all ages of our ethnically diverse parish community and to witness the Gospel by the way we live our daily lives.

Thoughts on Prayer
from the DRCC
www.dslcn.org

When it comes to laundry, there seems to be two ends to the spectrum. On one end, everything goes in together. On the other end, care is taken to sort like things together so that light stuff is separated from dark items; delicates are not mixed in with work clothes... you get the idea. Either way, you give it to the washing machine to clean it all up.

I think our conversational prayer, with God can go either way as well!

Sometimes my prayer thoughts are all mixed together—one thought leading to another as I talk to God about life.

At other times, my prayer is more sorted, so to speak: I might pray about what's going on in my life at the moment, then move onto all the people I'm concerned about or who have asked me to pray for them, and finally I might spend some time sharing all the things I'm grateful for.

How do you converse with God? How do you share the aspects of your life with the One who can clean it all up and give you some clarity?

Be well and be at peace!

~ Sr. Sue

Dear Parish Family,

Thank you to everyone who has already supported our parish bulletin collection this year. Through your generosity, we have collected $2,406 toward our annual goal/need of $3,640. At this point in the year, we have already reached $2,080.

Our weekly bulletin is an important ministry of communication and evangelization in parish life. It keeps our community informed, connected, and engaged in the life of the Church. We are asking those who are able to prayerfully consider making a contribution to help us to continue this ministry.

Any gift, large or small, is greatly appreciated. Thank you for your continued generosity, prayers, and support for our parish family.

May God bless you abundantly for your kindness and stewardship.
